In the letter of the law cash money belongs to the man who has it in his possession. Even if he stole a $100 bill from you the court would make you prove that the particular $100 bill was yours and that it was stolen.

Not so with a check on your bank. The name of the rightful owner of a check is particularly designated. Found or stolen, it is not the property of the finder or the thief—it is the property of the payee, and a wrongful possessor must show a good and sufficient reason why he has it.

COTTON POOLING PLAN IS ENDORSED BY BANKERS OF COFFEE COUNTY

CAMPAIN IS ACTIVE IN COFFEE COUNTY NOW; BIG POOLING PLAN IS GREAT SUCCESS; ASSOCIATION WILL DOUBLE QUOTA.

The bankers of Coffee County have given their endorsement of the Alabama Farm Bureau's cotton pooling plan, and within the next few days it is expected that several thousand more bales will be signed under the association's cotton plan.

Mr. Ben Mahoney, of Texas, is now in the county to assist in the work of signing up the cotton. Following conferences with the several banks at Enterprise, New Brockton and Elba, the above announcement has been made.

The cotton pooling plan has already more than reached the mark set by the association. The campaign was for 100,000 bales to be signed up in a few days, and a new mark has been set at 200,000 which no doubt will be reached.

Mr. Mahoney is being assisted in his work in the county by Mr. Jeff C. Donaldson, well known Coffee county farmer. It is his plan to make a thorough canvass of the county in the interest of the cotton pooling plan.

Following the conference with the bankers at Elba on yesterday, these banks issued the following statement:

"We heartily endorse the Alabama Farm Bureau Association movement in regard to marketing the farmers' cotton. We believe that with the pooling of the farmers' cotton, when it is possible to do so, to sell his cotton through the association and thereby market it all along the year, the farmer will be able to secure a better price for his cotton, but with the present arrangements with his bankers, he is paying out the first of the fall, as it is usually made, it will be necessary for him to arrange this coming fall for the plan of marketing."

It is our purpose to assist on all of the cotton farmers becoming members of this association this year, on account of the lateness of the organization and on account of the early maturity of a good many of the farmers' papers, but we do urge and endorse all of those that can arrange their papers satisfactory to join this movement for we believe that this will be the future safeguard of the farming interest of the South."

W. C. W. UNVEILING AT PLEASANT RIDGE

ELBA W. M. U. GIVES PROGRAM AT OPP

The Baptist W. M. U. was invited to give a program at the Opp Baptist church, Monday afternoon. The ladies who went from Elba were Mesdames W. C. Braswell, S. B. Lee, Frank Bullard, C. E. Lindsey, J. A. Carley, Leon Ham, C. P. Lee, Harris Murphree, C. P. Hayes, Frank Boyd, F. E. Anderson, O. A. Ellis, W. T. Whitman, Fannin Cunningham and J. W. Kendrick.

After the program the Opp ladies served delicious refreshments.

FINE BARBECUE

Careful Crossing Campaign Now On

The general public will be greatly interested in the campaign which will be conducted under the auspices of the American Railway Association for the prevention of accidents involving automobiles and other vehicles at grade crossings. The Campaign will be nation-wide in its scope and will extend over a period of four months, from June 1st to September 30th, 1922.

Handsome illustrated posters are now on display in every public place in all our cities and towns, as well as in the vicinity of grade crossings in our rural districts. These posters point out the hazards involved in crossing railroad tracks at grade, unless proper caution is exercised. It is believed by the many serious accidents which have occurred at these crossings during recent years, involving loss of life and property, that every person operating an automobile will realize the seriousness of the situation and will resolve to further the campaign by literally following the slogan which has been adopted: "CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY."

The Herlem river is but seven miles in length.

Growers Will Name Board of Directors

Complete plans for the election of a permanent board of directors for the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association were made at a recent meeting of the Organization Committee in Montgomery. These plans were made necessary because the campaign to secure at least 100,000 bales has already greatly exceeded this minimum, there being now under contract in Alabama more than 120,000 bales.

That the election may be thoroughly democratic and that every cotton grower who has signed the contract may have an opportunity to express himself regarding his choice for a board member, the Committee arranged for a primary election to be held June 14 and a general election June 26. Complete instructions regarding these elections are being sent direct by mail.

Complying with the contract and based upon the actual bales signed, the Committee divided the state into fourteen districts and the growers in each district will elect one member. In addition to these fourteen members, Dr. Spright Dowell, President of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, will appoint two members from the state at large, making a total of sixteen. Coffee County is in District No. 1, with Crenshaw, Covington and Geneva.

The Organization Committee is headed by John S. Kernachan, a well known farmer of Sheffield and Florence, and in addition to Mr. Kernachan, it is composed of twenty-four of the best known and most successful farmers in Alabama. This committee, having served its purpose, will be replaced by the permanent board of directors.

ALL HANDS TURNED LOOSE IN BIG STILL CASE AT SAMSON.

At the conclusion of the testimony of officers who raised the big distillery west of Pea river a few days ago, Justice Armstrong discharged all those accused of complicity in operation of the outfit. These were H. E. Patrick, Hosea Dannelley, J. D. Hill, Lorenz Robinson, W. H. Dannelley, Asa Dannelley, A. W. (alias Dock) Dannelley and G. D. Dannelley.

Deputy Sheriff G. W. Griffin and Constable O. M. Hargrette testified to following a road from the graded road one branch of which went toward a sawmill and the river and the other to the still. They heard a car in the woods and later came across a car with a flat tire, which H. E. Patrick and Hosea Dannelley were fixing.

They followed the track of the car, which they said had been the only one in since the rain of the previous day, and it led to the still. They described the plant and the material found, and Mr. Griffin produced a statement from a Samson man addressed to H. E. Patrick and a key tag with Mr. Patrick's name on it, which he testified he found in one of the tents at the still.

Sheriff Driver and Chief of Police Martin testified to approaching the still from a different direction and to its destruction.

Attorney W. O. Mulkey, who represented the defendants, made a motion for a continuance of the trial, claiming that the testimony was not sufficient to overcome the presumption of innocence. He contended that Messrs. Patrick, and Dannelley might have been at the still, but the burden of proof was on the state to show that they were connected with its operation.

J. D. Hill, who left the country presumably, did not appear for trial. No warrant had been served on him.

The FARMER and HIS BANK

The farmer who goes to town with his wagon or truck full, and goes home with it empty, is the one who gets ahead. He is the one who has a growing bank account.

That kind of a farmer does not have to borrow often, and when he does, it is for some big thing that means still greater prosperity for him.

And when that sort of farmer does want to borrow money he has no trouble in getting it—his credit is already established, and the bank is glad to accommodate him.

Be a regular depositor in this bank.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

VOLUME XXV.

ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY JUNE 15th, 1922

NUMBER 63.

State Crops Show A Satisfactory Condition

The June 1 report, released Saturday by F. W. Gist, federal and state agricultural statistician, discloses an average condition for all crops which may be called quite satisfactory. While some crops are late and grassy, others are apparently in splendid prospects for final production.

Cotton, heretofore reported as of May 25, was at that time very satisfactory, with a condition of about 80 per cent of normal, indicating a probable acre-yield of about 148 pounds.

Since that date continuous rains have retarded cultivation made the grass grow, and started the weevils out towards large and hungry numbers.

The stands are good and, in southern counties, the crop is clean and of good size in northern counties the crop is late and work is behind. From now on it is a case of weather and weevils.

The condition of wheat is reported at 78 per cent of normal, some rust having caused poor prospects, while the acreage is not important anywhere.

The acreage to oats is found to be 90 per cent of last year, and the condition was 82 per cent of normal. Rains injured some fields before cutting, but others sustained some damage in the shock. The proportion of this crop sown in the fall was 57 per cent.

The probable use of the crop is estimated as follows: To be threshed, 23 per cent; to be fed in the bundle, 45 per cent; to be used as hay, 31 per cent.

The condition of hay, which at this time of year is confined to grass and clover, was 88 per cent normal, while pastures were very near normal at 96 per cent.

Peas and beans show condition of 86 per cent of normal, and are growing splendidly.

Orchard fruits give the poorest prospects, 70 per cent of normal, 65 for peaches, and 64 for pears. Blackberries show a prospect of 89 and strawberries went up to 96 with a condition of 86.

Watermelons have a fine start with 84 per cent of normal, while cantaloupes are not quite so good at 80.

Cabbages at 86 and onions at 87 show a uniformly good condition with an average of 87 for all vegetables. The acreage planted to vegetables is estimated at 97 per cent of last year.

Alfalfa has been slightly increased in acreage by one per cent, while clover lost two per cent. The condition of both these crops average 93 per cent of normal.

On returning from a trip through the mineral and northeastern sections, Mr. Gist expresses himself as not quite so well pleased with general prospects on main crops as for the southern part of the state.

Cotton has been planted, but not all chopped. The plant is small and has some grass. Corn planting has been rather slowly delayed, especially in the valley lands of Calhoun and Talladega, and that which is up does not compare favorably with that in southern districts.

Some corn will be planted after this but its successful growth is somewhat doubtful.

Many pastures are seen in splendid condition, some having their proper capacity occupied by good cattle, while many others are not in as good condition.

Altogether the outcome of this season is problematical and cannot be foretold at this time.

NORTH COFFEE FOURTH OF JULY SINGING

announce that the North Coffee fourth of July singing has

Marketing Campaign Will Close This Week

The month of June is a historic month in the co-operative cotton marketing movement in Alabama.

Following less than three months of intensive work, the Farm Bureau sign-up campaign will come to a close Saturday, June 17, followed in close order by the election of a permanent board of directors, the primary for which will be held Wednesday, June 14, and the final election Monday, June 19. On Friday, June 16, four delegates will be elected.

The board of directors will meet in Montgomery to elect a president and an executive committee, among their number; to file articles of incorporation for the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association.

Among the immediate work of the board of directors will be the employment of a sales office, the securing of office space, and the opening of necessary to have the Association ready to begin marketing cotton as soon as the earliest of the 1922 crop is ready for sale.

The total balaage in the Farm Bureau Cotton Association is expected to reach 200-000 by June 17, placing Alabama cotton growers along with cotton growers in other southern states in co-operative marketing.

Miss Debata Blocker and Mrs.
P. B. Walker were joint hostesses at a beautiful shower on Tuesday afternoon given in honour of Miss Mattie Bell Bryant, whose marriage to Mr.
Donald Hammond, of Dothan will occur early next week.

This lovely affair was given at Miss Blocker's Millinery store, which was decorated most appropriately.

Delicious ice cream and cakes were served by Mrs.
Wright assisted by Mrs.
Dorsey. Those who were recipients of Miss Wright's generous hospitality were members of the Inter Se Club and a number of other friends.

ELBA BOY MARRIED IN ST.
LOUIS

The editor of The Clipper is in receipt of the following announcement:

made his home in St. Louis for the past two or three years, a date

Prof. B. H. Boyd To Head Elba Schools

Prof. B. H. Boyd, of Hartford, last week was elected Superintendent of the Elba Public Schools for the coming year. He has already accepted the place and within the next few weeks will move to Elba with his family.

Prof. Boyd comes to Elba highly recommended. He has served as county superintendent of schools in Geneva county and has been at the head of schools in other places.
He is a very competent man and the news of his election will be learned with interest by school folks of Elba.

Prof. B. H. Boyd, Jr., has also been named as principal of the elementary school.

As yet no teachers have been elected for the coming year.
Alabama school laws provide that the Superintendent has full authority and it is made his duty to nominate all teachers, and the City Board of Education has left this matter in the hands of Prof. Boyd. He will nominate the faculty as soon as practicable. It is understood that a number of applicants have already been received for the places here.

Announcement as to the election of teachers will be made as soon as they are selected.
